SPACO TV BIBLE

Overview

Spaco

30 minute sitcom for Comedy Central

A never ending cast of crazy clients and incompetent staff make this a classic which may remind you of the premise of "faulty towers". This high concept sitcom will also elevate your inner ambitions of healing your life while educating the audience about opening the portals of their mind without drugs. ie. Chakra healing, akashic records, telepathy as well as the traditional reiki and massage and anti-aging spa fare.

The staff are always at odds and misunderstandings happen frequently mainly due to the personalities of the like-a-spa team but somehow melandra passes this off to the cutting edge healing techniques on the spa menu. a never seen before and real expose into what happens behind the scenes in the serenity of a spa. Like-a-spa bases it's popularity on reviews constantly adjusting to client's whims.

Setting

A comedy set in a spa/wellness center where the staff poses more dangers than the advanced yoga classes they lead. Like-a-spa, located on the beach in Los Angeles, looks and feels just like a Swedish spa, but it is just a facade of a real 5-star spa. The spa has a texture and style just like an Ikea store. The therapists embody the LA persona: talking slang, self-medicating, and outspokenly "problem free with a healthy mind", when they should have their own therapists. The therapists spend much of their time hardly working, complaining of spa clients, and getting high.

The spa director is deliberately combative with a huge attitude of superiority. The spa markets itself as a healers haven and creates a space of healing for couples but this is a huge proverbial untruth.

The spa director having appeared as an extra on "Melrose Place" and stood in for Heather Locklear's breasts as well as several feature films starring Steven Segal, etc, the spa director literally believes she is entitled and famous.

She insists she has celebrity guests on a daily basis and that this is the perfect movie star retreat which might be why she doesn't open her private healing space on certain days. Her self-delusion, awful customer service, and her additude just cause chaos instead of peace behind the scenes.

Her co-workers at the spa:

Anna, receptionist

Juki, yoga instructor, daughter of mega-millionaire

Rory Lenon who rarely shows up, floating in with an entourage when she does leaving Randy, the meditation instructor to cover for her while he has multiple injuries. Not to mention, the janitor, whose sense of smell and dress codes have customers fleeing.

Add frail & sweaty cleaner Lupe, clairvoyant Ayurveda therapist Doreen and Boris, a Russian pain management specialist, and a Ryan, new therapist who is accident prone and doesn't listen to anyone, the only healing this spa can deliver is mockery and shenanigans

CHARACTERS

The spa director has an exotic name, MELANDRA - (a cross between Melody/Sandra)

The company would be a success, if it were not under her leadership, she only hires those who are intellectually inferior otherwise they may pose competition. Staff incompetence at the job is what you get, they don't even read the bare instructions she gives them. Her plot is to allure celebrities to the spa and become their best friend, so she can become an integral part of their life attending red-carpet events, cocktail parties, step and repeat events

So she can meet a man of means! She brags about her premiere new museum video, which is in actual fact a "Mr Clean: Magic Eraser" student commercial. Every week a new brag, which she loves and of course, the guys she meets are goobers! She dismisses people and has no patience for anyone she works with and the clients too sometimes.

Ryan, the new guy at the spa is driven by his need for attention and to climb the social ladder yet he is awkward with people and cannot hold eye contact for too long. He is eye candy for the spa with a great body.

Yet he is accident prone and frustrates everyone as he listens to you but ignores everything the spa director says why? Because he knows about it already!

Melandra is often seen rushing around calling his name to find out if he is doing what she asked. He claims that he is not being trained properly by her so how can he do those tasks well? Although, he is happy to be working at "spa to the stars"

Lupe, the immigrant spa cleaning lady. She is happy go lucky but also frail and always humming a Oaxacan polka which is annoying for the clients and the spa director. She sweats a lot but is very proud of her work, sometimes spending time in washing a shelf for 15 mins.

Boris is overweight and is a pain management massage therapist from Russia. He specializes in beating you with eucalyptus sticks before the sauna. He shows up at the wrong time in the wrong place, his sense of social skills leave much to be desired. His accent is heavy and so usually you have to read his body language but he has does have interesting stories of the cold war days!

Doreen's soothing voice makes her a magic massage therapist, she is prone to schizophrenic episodes and clients should be paying her! She is in the profession because she is determined to heal her life. She loves to experiment on the spa's clients with alternative, previously unknown new-age treatments without permission from the spa director.

Juki, the heiress is a yoga teacher who tries to create an atmosphere of tranquility and positivity around her - and fails miserably each time. She is very aggressive and shouts at you and then blesses you at the end of each yoga session.

Anna loves to work at the spa, it is better than home, it is very relaxing as she is a single mom. Her scheming pyramid schemes and her dating through Craigs list gives her an edgy personality. Her in-ability to command the english language, even though she sounds hip, doesn't make it obvious that english is her second language! so you often have to do a double take to be sure she is not doing the exact opposite of your request! she misses all the jokes.

EPISODE FIVE: BEAT ME UP WITH A BAMBOO STICK!

The washing machine breaks down and starts to smell of sewer gas, it is brand new! Yelpers come in and slam Likea-a-spa online. The staff are reading the reviews: We gave her the benefit of the doubt, since we had ordered the bamboo stick massage but after what my husband had received, I had to draw the line and write the review to let others know to be careful. My masseuse thankfully didn't injure me, But it was fairly obvious that she did not know how to use a bamboo stick in a massage. i felt as if i was a pound of dough being rolled out to go in the oven, in fact going in the oven would of been a nice experience all round. Dirty and grungy. The bathroom was dirty, the sheets and robes smelled and had stains on them, the jacuzzi was not at all like a spa jacuzzi, it was like those cheap backyard tubs. There were bottles of cleaners and plastic hangers around the tub, which added to the grunge factor.

EPISODE SIX: DRUNK REMEDIES

a tv show comes in to film a popular show and features the spa therapists on the show. The new therapist ryan, is very excited and somewhat starstruck. To the surprise of likeaspa staff, right on cue, he upstages everyone while filming on the set so he can meet the star talent and network. The star talent got drunk before filming and the producers call the melandra in to concoct a natural remedy which she promptly excels at due to many a nursed hang-over at work. The yoga teacher is having a fit as she believes in manifesting and this job is not manifesting quickly enough. Meanwhile, anna is scheming melandra to not take taxes out so she can get low income housing.

EPISODE SEVEN: INSTAGRAM

Ryan is on a roll and in his mind climbing the ladder of success. Reese Witherspoon comes into like-a-spa and he tweets to all his friends while in the middle of the massage. 8 of his friends show up and press their noses against the window. Ryan, has opened the blinds slightly so he can be seen and poses for he pictures and massages with one hand unbeknownst to the celebrity. He uses facebook live to record this great event. Later reese, finds out and yelps him and melandra suspends him. He is replaced by a therapist who is perennially late for work and so melandra has to answer the phone and do the massages at the same time! A particularly busy Saturday has her bouncing around from massage to phone (she surreptitiously speaking in the bathroom finding any excuse to leave the room, such getting aromatherapy, hot towels, etc. The phone is ringing like crazy as the episode just aired on tv. We see the reality episode briefly, it is awkward but the place looks great so people keep coming. The therapist keeps texting melandra telling her she is minutes away and then of course, she can't find the building or the parking even though she has been there, every excuse. Eventually she shows up and tip toes into the room and takes over the massage for the last 20 mins while melandra quietly steps out of the room, the client wakes up and is shocked to find another therapist working on her..yelp..'em! Meanwhile, the therapists is wondering around asking clients where is her tips, in a very strong french accent.

EPISODE EIGHT :GROUPON

The massage therapist who claims she is clairvoyant is having a episode. She is dreaming of who she really is in a different and separate realities, for instance, one vision is she is dating the guy who is on the table, spirit is talking to her. Another vision is the client touched her in the wrong way, she deals with Dilemna quietly as she continues massaging. Melandra is feeling artistic and is having a profound effect on her meditation teacher as she does "spoken word (its' actually really good) as she floats around the spa. A annoyed client shows up with a copy of her groupon and demands that she get her money back as it expired and she didn't get to use it, groupon says you never lose your face value. Melandra is trying to explain that she needs to speak to groupon. The client holds her ground and is looking at her ipad trying to find different ways to find a loop-hole to get something for free. Anna starts to suggest different scheming ways she could get a spa deal at like-a-spa thereby having the spa lose money, she even suggests to write a "bad review" on yelp so melandra will comp her!! Anna leaves early as she has a date with a greek guy from craigs list. Anna movies in with him immediately upon his suggestion.

EPISODE NINE: VIP VERY IMPORTANT PERSON

A man walks into the reception area to get a massage, told to wait in an uncomfortable chair, phone rings, receptionist lets all the important people in for massages, making him feel even more uncomfortable.

The waiting area is a vast cold room, on the expedit lies just one magazine, womens' world, he stares at it uncomfortably on the cold marble karlstad table. He looks at the mosjo with envy and begins to admire all the ikea furniture. He tries to peak at anna's breasts through the button hole opening of her sweater as passes him the spa menu. He ponders about happy endings and wonders if he hit the jackpot. The swedish receptionist is talking lyrically, she speaks only swedish and he recognizes such ikea sounding words. She offers him smorball and shows him gullholmne rocking chair to sit in while he now waits eagerly in the hall, past the first gate. She finally gives him a plate of meatballs and thanks him for his patience.

EPISODE NINE: FINGER PUPPETS

Juki, the yoga teacher is causing havoc. The sweaty cleaner is dribbling sweat everywhere, like a long trail of snail slime, as she cleans, she is on a detox. Melandra is trapped in the cheap sauna and they have to call a locksmith. Meanwhile, Doreen leaves early leaving Juki to fill in and do the massages! Juki is looking at Ryan's every move and copying exactly every move he does in massage. It's a typical day except it's halloween and staff are hoping to go trick and treat and swig some wine. Unfortunately, Melandra has to cancel her Hollywood red carpet party which puts her in a nasty mood. Then she finds Anna and Ryan flirting and using snapchat and play acting spa finder puppets instead of working! They are re-enacting the day they just had with ryan and juki with finger puppets from the clients point of view, Melandra is now furious! If she fires them, she will have to deal with more flaky therapists so she bites her tongue and locks herself in the office.

EPISODE ONE: KEEPING UP WITH THE KOREANS

EXT. SPA - DAY

MELANDRA

(guffawing)

A 24 hr spa really?!!!!

ANNA

Who wants to go to a spa for 24 hrs that is just too many massages!

MELANDRA

Seriously? Don't think....it doesn't flatter you. Fold some towels it just means you can go whenever you want,
day or night

Davina opens V-steam, just arrived through time mail. It has Chinese shipping labels all over it. She is intently reading the instruction manual.

DAVINA

Yep, Gwyneth Paltrow loves the v-steam, she said so herself, on QBC. It cleans your vagina really well!

Gwyneth Paltrow's name catches Melandra's attention.

(looks like a ghost)

Am I going to have to do those?

DAVINA

This looks weird. Aren't these supposed to be from a Swedish company.

Davina lurks in the background.

ANNA

Really? I would of hoped she would clean her vagina before going to the spa, that is the only decent thing to do when you to a spa, this is a public place, don't they think about those who work here, gross?

They all look at her...stare her down but she may actually have a point.

DAVINA

No..... this is a traditional Korean vajay cleaning remedy with steam, you sit on a pot of mogwort.

MELANDRA

Sounds like Harry Potter line of magic bullshit.

INT. OFFICE

Melandra is sifting through all the v-steam manual she swiped from Davina.

INT. BATHROOM NEXT - DAY

Melandra calls Don.

MELANDRA

Do it on the cheap Don, I don't really believe in it so we'll see, you have $100 and a restaurant date with me, just jerry-rig it!

Several staff are helping Don is this experiment, sometimes putting the steamer pot in the wrong place and putting the toilet seats in the cement!

DON

I need real help, Mel this is costing me more money than the 405 freeway remodel.

MELANDRA

Ok, we are going Spaco, I believe...hallelujah....the only way, is the 5 star way!

CUT TO:

INT. V STEAM ROOM

Gyneth is doing a testimonial about Spaco for free sessions

GWYNETH

(excited)

Spaco v-steam and Melandra, wow, like-a-spa does not give me enough time to steam my vagina and Melandra promises me extra time on the v-steam forever. Cameraman stops and smiles

MELANDRA

You will be the v-steam Spaco spokesperson forever, my world has become celebrat-ised.

Press releases say it's a new fad.

EXT. SPA - LATE MORNING

There is a line out the door

GYWNNETH (O.S.)

I'm not done yet! I am enjoying myself way too much!

INT. LOUNGE - NEXT DAY - MORNING

Melandra reads and online review in the morning staff meeting

#g-spot

I won't even get into the time they let Gwyneth stay on the v steam for an extra 25 minutes even though we had been patiently waiting for our session for over a half hour, and her session completely cut into ours. They poked their head in to let her know other clients were waiting, and I heard Gwyneth say "I am not done yet, I need more time," even though she had been in there for at least 45 minutes. The sessions are 30 minutes long, but I guess thats Gwyneth for you. Like-a-spa needs to treat their regular clientele a bit better.

#WTF-SPA

I believe if everything was going to be that small and cramped at least work right...

I enjoyed the jacuzzi until they allowed this lady to get in nude with discolored discharge leaking from her vajay... if thats was part of the vajayjay treatment they can keep it... it looked like a a venereal disease! I wouldn't know about the "vajay" treatment because they claim they where over booked or some nonsense I thought that's what my reservation was for?

EPISODE TWO

"CONNECTED AND CALM"

INT. SPA MASSAGE ROOM - DAY

Couple enter the room and the two massage therapists.

DOREEN and BORIS do not communicate with each other. It looks like neither knows what to do, there is no set up before the massage and after.

SUSANNE

My husband wants the male therapist and I want the female.

Melandra hardly notices and floats around the spa flitting from room to room..smiling superficially.

MELANDRA

Yea yea yea..... we always do that.

The couple, MICHAEL and SUSANNE are sitting on the sofa by the massage bed. The therapists start their consultation.

SUSANNE

We requested the opposite sex?

(light and friendly)
Ahhh!!!

RYAN (CONT'D)

We don't say the "s" word at this spa, the owner says it brings us back to 1969 & massage parlors, well we just don't want that connotation here, if you know what I mean, nudge, nudge, wink, wink.

BRENDA

(covering up)

Put it this way, people usually like having opposite sex working on them, right?

MICHEAL

Okay well, at least ask us what we prefer first? The owner did not do a good job communicating what we wanted then?

Doreen and Boris leave the room, bickering in a low volume.

Susanne and Michael are resigned to suffer the consequences, too late to turn back now.

SUSANNE

This table is very uncomfortable table and does not support my neck properly.

BRENDA

(resigned but not the truth)

Sorry, can't do anything about it since I can only work on this lower table, the head-cradle is like that on here.

SUSANNE

(arguing)

This table was clearly meant for a man with a much larger head.

The therapists ignore this and continue their work as the clients toss and turn and complain through most of the session. The session ends and Bryan and Brenda rush the clients out to the reception

Why don't we even get to enjoy sitting outside in the patio?

CUT TO:

EXT. PATIO - THAT MOMENT

SUSANNE (CONT'D)

It was fairly obvious she had no idea what she was doing

MICHEAL

It was the worst massage of my life, my shoulder may be injured, he was odd, and always frazzled and never seemed to know what he was doing when I asked him questions

SUSANNE

(disgruntled)

This place is dirty and grungy, the bathroom was dirty, the sheets and robes smelled and had stains on them,
the jacuzzi was not at all like a spa jacuzzi, it was like one those cheap backyard tubs. there were bottles of cleaners and plastic hangers around the tub, which added to the grunge factor.

MICHEAL

I don't expect this from a so called luxurious spa

SUSANNE

I 'm not kidding when I say that was the worst massage of my life as well.
I wasn't shy about letting her know if I wanted her to give more pressure or not, she just didn't know what to do and pressed and poked randomly. i was glad it was over.

INT. RECEPTION.

MELANDRA stands and hovers over ANNA as she has a evaluation and work review.

POV. ANNA

ANNA

(writing furiously)

I can't believe that place as 4 starts. Do not waist ur money. U went for spa retreat. Oh where do I start.

(MORE)

ANNA (CONT'D)

First I walk in and there is no
greedily area, from the outside I walk in directly in to the massage room and I am verbally and from gesture from the hand to wait outside no pleasantly. I don't have to write down every reason .

Anna thinks it is real and has an attitude at work, looking at Melandra.

(reads)

I am only giving this place 2 stars because the staff is very polite and they were probably scammed by the owner to work for her but I am definitely giving the owner a zero and I have valid reasons. where should I begin...

Begins to utter her delusion with the spa and whether this review is valid.

(reading aloud)

First of all, the names to the spa packages are a false advertisement.
There's no fireside

Two fires are burning brightly at the spa, one in the front and one in the back patio garden.

ANNA (CONT'D)

No beach view. What's more deceiving are the photos on yelp and their website

We see a beach view

ANNA (CONT'D)

I took those photos from my razor
phone, what are they talking about

MELANDRA

Obviously they don't understand real talent!

(CONT'D)

Anna reads aloud as Melandra listens. Both bust out laughing

ANNA

The spa boasts ocean views, but like other reviewers pointed out, it was nowhere to be found. You'd have to step out of the spa and actually walk to the beach to get an ocean view. Whatever, it wasn't a deal breaker for me but just don't advertise ocean views since people tend shell out more cash for a better view

---

EPISODE FOUR: THE WINNER!

Monthly client, Greg arrives who lives close by.

(to camera)
I signed up on the mailing list for those..come on....promotions.

MELANDRA

(to camera)
He has been there every month his free aromatherapy vial. This month, he broke his tooth while opening the vial with his teeth.

ANNA

So he threatens to sue Spaco like a bull in a china shop, he going to torch the Melandra's car on fire and throw himself on it.

FREDDY

I give you the choice: you choose?

The new massage therapist, Ryan is backtracking! Ryan is the accidental prone and neurotic massage therapist and he is just learning to make eye contact as part of his spa training. Other than that, he is a very good massage therapist

What nightmare would you like to experience today? I mean what type of massage would you prefer?

EPISODE FIVE: BEAT ME UP WITH A BAMBOO STICK!

EPISODE 10: TODDY TIPPLER

Regular client Pamela, is a very particular and fussy regular and she is sourly annoyed. At last, like-a-spa has a good review on yelp. Melandra says whatever, we did that day don't do it again, it is the only positive review we got. My angle is to go with the bad reviews to overpower the other bad reviews which will negate those bad reviews in turn and nobody will believe any of the bad reviews as reasoning would suggest, how could we be in business" we need to embrace, and manifest our destiny. In walks Jenny, the newest employee, she was referred by a client. Melandra notices she doesn't walk in a straight line but the last thing on her mind was this is a drunk massage therapist. The penny drops when she insists on disappearing to her car every 90 mins leaving the clients waiting eagerly on the massage bed, even some threatened to leave while Melandra tells them the therapist is preparing in the corner of the spa doing tai chi to give them better energy. A blatant lie but it worked.

INT.

excited, she will jump on the bandwagon. melandra studies on the internet like crazy for the next hour, sifting through all the v-steam manuals and realizing it has a great potential to lure gynetth paltrow to like-a-spa! she decides the next day to install v- steam outlets...she does it on the cheap at first because she doesn't really believe in it. she

THE INTERVIEW

MELANDRA

SHE LOOKS DIRECTLY INTO LISAS' EYES, SQUARE ON, HOPING IN HER HEART THAT IS HER NEXT STAR MASSAGE THERAPIST

CUT TO:

INT. ZEN MASSAGE ROOM

LISA

I am going to work on grounding and nourishing and because you have had lots of bodywork, I am going to give you bodywork, I wouldn't do it on other people but with you I know I should give you a real session so I will be working in your anus area

Melandra shuddes, shoves her nerves down deep, she needs a good massage therapist but this is not starting out well.

LISA (CONT'D)

Well not up it but pushing the envelope if you know what I mean.

MELANDRA

Not sure whether to run or stay put, reason says what could happen unless she is a serial killer massage therapist that is the worst that could happen right.

MELANDRA (CONT'D)

Well this a first but is it, shouldn't she know this stuff already?

LISA

I have some stones and crystals, I brought with me

(THEY ALL LOOK AT HER...STARE HER DOWN BUT SHE MAY ACTUALLY HAVE A POINT!!!!)

MELANDRA

I have stones here and they are ready to go (an exasperated look on her face) Is there a possibility they are dirty stones, I don't want them on my body

Melandra thinks about the butt dialogue... We see melandra thinking in thought bubbles.

(terror is grips her heart)
Oh my god, hiring a hippy massage therapist or is she a serial killer massage therapist.

The new hires has 2 bags in the room and wide open on the floor. melandra wonders why...

LISA

Breathe into your anus and vagina
Vagina hole, breathe, & breathe.....

Melandra is on the table and trying to do as instructed Melandra is now feeling uncertain about the wisdom of continuing this interview. She struggles with her thoughts.

We see thought bubbles as Lisa is skimming really close to her butt.

MELANDRA

(thinks silently)
I am not a 21st century slut, I am just an old conservative granny!!

Melandra struggles with her thoughts as she realizes her imagination is running rampant.

MELANDRA (CONT'D)

Okay, when do I draw the line, is this it, is this what they are all talking about. Maybe I am one of those lgbtq's? Am the q or the lesbian. Is this what lesbian experience is? Is she going to turn me? Is this rape?

(MORE)

MELANDRA (CONT'D)

Should I report it to "Me too" Calm down, she is not putting her finger up my butt!

LISA

Come on. Get comfortable

MELANDRA

What is acceptable these days? Everything seems to be ok. How do I make her stop.

LISA

NOW I AM PUTTING THE BROWN CRYSTAL ON YOUR SACRUM

MELANDRA

Maybe I am not getting it, maybe I am too superficial to understand her healing methods. I should try to get through it so I can judge it properly.

MELANDRA

(nervous)

What is that clicking?

FANTASY SCENE

Since Melandra is on the massage table she just envisions many hands are on her body and she is worried what lisa is using from those 2 huge bags wide open on the floor

MELANDRA (CONT'D)

Do you know much about guns and flick-knives?

LISA

Excuse me?

Melandra is not sure she was heard and covers up her freudian slip.

MELANDRA

I hear clicking

LISA

That is just my hands releasing energy. Now I am going to put some stones on you. This is my hand if you feel itching or heaviness let me know?
